SCRIPT:

When we think about service agencies, it's important to consider people – leaders and staff- and organizational factors that can impact the process of implementing Triple P.

Let's consider how willingness, ability, and fit can help us make some smart decisions.

What agency might be a “more ready” partner for implementing Triple P in your county?

Let's start by defining willingness, ability, and fit for your county!
(What do these terms mean for your county?)

Willingness:

Ability:

Fit:

SCRIPT:

Now that we have defined each term, let's consider new agencies that have expressed interest in Triple P or identified by the coalition as potential partners.

Use the cards to identify each agency by name. Your team will engage in open discussion to assess each agency's readiness to implement Triple P and become a part of the coalition by considering willingness, ability and fit. Let the discussion begin!

Now that you have chosen you "most ready" agency, what are your next steps?
